THE MINISTER OF CULTURE (SHRI S. JAIPAL REDDY): (a) No, Sir.

(b) Does not arise.

(c) to (e) There is no proposal to recommend a site from Orissa for inclusion in the World Heritage list because the World Heritage Committee in its 28th session held in Suzhou, China in 2004 has restricted only one cultural nomination per year. The Government has already proposed for Majuli Island in Assam for 2006 and is resubmitting nomination dossier for Red Fort. Further, as per provisions of the Operational Guidelines for implementation of the World Heritage Convention each State Party has to submit to the World Heritage Committee a tentative list of sites which it intends to nominate for inscription on the World Heritage List.

Remains of cities near Surat

†443. SHRIMATI MAYA SINGH; Will the Minister of CULTURE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the Archaeological Survey of India has recently found one thousand year old remains of cities and village near Surat in Gujarat; and

(b) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF CULTURE (SHRI S. JAIPAL REDDY): (a) and (b) the excavations carried out by the Indian Archaeological Society, New Delhi, at the Centrally protected site of Kamrej, District Surat, Gujarat, during the field season 2002-03, have brought to light remains of an early Historical settlement, with industrial centres of iron making, shell crafting, bead making, etc. The evidence unearthed further indicated that the site was a trade port, having overseas contacts with the Persian Gulf and the Red Sea.
